DIRECTOR'S NOTE

I began working at Parkland in 1986. In 1992 I became the Artistic Director of the Parkland Theatre, a position I still occupy. I will be retiring in August and this is my last Parkland show. I am proud beyond words of the quality of our work over the last 20 years. During that time, we have educated, challenged and entertained audiences in over 100 separate productions. I directed over 40 of these shows including (my personal favorites); Five Kinds of Silence, The Exonerated, Lady Day at Emerson's Bar and Grill and Cabaret. I would like to thank our amazing and loyal audiences. I have enjoyed working with great volunteers, young professionals and brilliant artists. I have also had the pleasure of teaching about 5,000 students and I enjoyed learning from each of them.

Thanks. Enjoy the show!

7:30pm
March 3, 10 at 3pm

The popular children's book Pinkalicious has been transformed into an adorable, energetic musical for children of all ages! Pinkalicious loves pink and wants everything in her life to be pink. Despite warnings from her parents, Pinkalicious can't stop eating pink cupcakes! Her pink indulgence lands her at the doctor's office with Pinkitis, an affliction that turns her pink from head to toe - a dream come true for this pink loving enthusiast. But when her hue goes too far, only Pinkalicious can figure out a way to get out of this predicament. Appropriate for all ages.

Ticket Prices are $14 for Adults, $12 for Students and Seniors (55+), $8 for Youth (12 and under) and $10 for Groups of 15 or more. Opening Night, Wednesday, February 22 is "Pay what you can night!" where YOU set the ticket price and on Thursday, March 8 all tickets are half-price!

There will be a post-performance talkback after the Friday, February 24 performance.
